Executive Summary

Daniel is an associate lawyer and member of the Commercial Real Estate Group at Gardiner Roberts. His practice and expertise spans all matters relating to commercial real estate, with a particular concentration on acquisition, disposition, leasing and financing.

In addition to commercial real estate, Daniel also advises clients on general corporate/commercial matters as well as secured financings, acting for lenders and borrowers. Daniel frequently advises schedule I banks, credit unions and private lenders on intricate real estate financings.

Daniel's clients rely on his responsiveness, attentiveness and meticulous approach to every aspect of their transaction.

Daniel joined the firm as an associate in 2022 after previously working at Gardiner Roberts as a summer and articling student.
